Patrick Sheridan

is one of the most celebrated tuba soloists in his instrument's history. He has performed more than 3,000 concerts in over 50 countries in venues ranging from the White House to NBA half-time shows to the Hollywood Bowl.

At 20 years of age, Patrick became a member of "The President's Own" United States Marine Band. Since then, Patrick has gone on to become an incredibly diverse artist with concert performances transcending stylistic genres and building fans around the world for his instrument, the tuba. He has been featured in television and radio broadcasts on 4 continents including appearances most recently on NBC's Today Show and NPR's All Things Considered and Performance Today.

Beyond his busy performing life, Mr. Sheridan's commitment to education is extensive. His wind students occupy principal positions in major international ensembles including orchestras in Amsterdam, Berlin, Vienna, Rome, Paris, Madrid, Tokyo, Hong Kong, and many others. Mr. Sheridan has served on the music faculties at Arizona State University, Northern Arizona University, The Rotterdam Conservatory, The Royal Northern College of Music and The Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama. Most recently, Patrick served on the music faculty at the University of California - Los Angeles where he was the Director of the UCLA Wind Ensemble, the UCLA Brass Ensemble and taught tuba and euphonium. In the Phoenix community, Patrick is the Music Director of The Salt River Brass. Patrick also frequently works across the United States as a guest conductor with university bands and orchestras as well as high school and middle school all-state and regional honor bands and orchestras.

Along with Sam Pilafian, Patrick is the co-author of the world's best selling breathing method for instrumental improvement, The Breathing Gym which was awarded the 2009 EMMY® Award for Instructional/Informational Video Production.

As a composer and arranger, Mr. Sheridan's music and arrangements have been performed internationally by symphony orchestras, concert bands, marching bands, jazz bands and drum corps. Patrick's music, arrangements, CDs, DVDs, and books are published by Focus on Music, GIA Publications, De Haske Music, Carl Fischer, Mythen Hollanda and Dillon Music Publishing.

Mr. Sheridan has over 20 years experience in the music industry as a design consultant. Instruments influenced by Patrick's designs are played in hundreds of professional orchestras, military bands and chamber ensembles around the world. Thousands of university, high school, middle school and elementary school students play on instruments in which Patrick has been involved in the design process. He currently works as the Chief Design Consultant for XO Brass, Jupiter Band Instruments, and Hercules Stands.

Patrick is a member of ASCAP, an Honorary Member of Kappa Kappa Psi, and the Founder of The Band Director Academy, a continuing education program for music educators. He holds a Master of Business Administration degree with an emphasis in finance and marketing from the University of Michigan and spends his free time with his family hiking and camping in beautiful Arizona.

James Kurschner

has been the Music Director of the Sheldon Theatre Brass Band since 2002. He is a member of the music faculty at Normandale Community College in Bloomington, MN, where he conducts the concert band and instrumental ensembles, and teaches class piano and applied saxophone. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-River Falls, and Northwestern University in Evanston, IL. His past teachers include piano study with Dr. Carolyn Britton and Mary Stanton, conducting studies with John P. Paynter and W. Larry Brentzel, and saxophone with Robert Samarotto. In addition to his regular conducting appearances, Jim is an avid pianist and saxophonist, performing frequently throughout the Twin Cities area. His latest recording with the Sheldon Theatre Brass Band, entitled Black, White, and Blue, features his solo piano performance of George Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue. He frequently collaborates with area musicians in chamber music performances throughout the Twin Cities.

Spring Concert, 2017

Sheldon Theatre Brass Band

The Sheldon Theatre Brass Band was founded in 1989 in the form and tradition of the British Brass Bands. Our members come from the Twin Cities, southeast Minnesota and western Wisconsin and include many current and retired music educators. In the past 30 seasons, we have performed at national competitions, festivals, schools, churches, and parks, as well as our regular concerts at the Sheldon Theatre in Red Wing, Minnesota. We have played at MMEA in 1991, 1999 and 2018, and WMEA (Wisconsin Music Educators Association) in 2000. We have recorded 4 compact discs which are available, along with more information on our members and performances, on our website, www.sheldonthatrebrassband.org. We enjoy both the challenge of performing this unique repertoire at the highest possible level, and the camaraderie that our endeavors and love of music provide.

Thank you!

Thank you to everyone who has contributed to the Sheldon Theatre Brass Band's 30 years of presenting music in the British Brass Band tradition – visionaries who started the band with the help of the North American Brass Band Association, present and past members, guest artists and substitute performers, musical collaborators, supportive families, the Sheldon Theatre, the Red Wing Community, chair sponsors and other financial supporters, composers and arrangers of our music, and our appreciative audiences.

To our donors - the success and longevity of the Sheldon Theatre Brass Band is dependent upon the generous patronage of our donors and chair sponsors. Your financial support helps us preserve and advance the musical genre of the British brass band while serving the community and region through music.
